Denver Scholarship Foundation Appoints Bob Deibel to Chair its Board of Directors

Denver, CO – Denver Scholarship Foundation (DSF) recently named Bob Deibel as board chair. Deibel succeeds Linda S. Bowman, Ph.D., who chaired the DSF Board of Directors from 2017 to 2019.

As the president and owner of OfficeScapes Group, Deibel brings invaluable experience to DSF as the organization embarks on a new three-year strategic plan, To and Through 2022. Deibel has held leadership positions on numerous boards, including those of the Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce, Metro Denver Economic Development Corporation, University of Colorado Denver School of Business, Colorado Succeeds, and many others.

“We are thrilled to begin a new era under Mr. Deibel’s leadership, particularly as our new strategic plan focuses our efforts on connectivity, sustainability, and visibility,” said Lorii Rabinowitz, chief executive officer of DSF. “With a long history of leadership experience across the region and a vision for the future of education and workforce development in Denver, Mr. Deibel’s direction of the board poises DSF to engage more students, donors, and community partners than ever before.”

Since its founding in 2006, DSF has served 6,376 Scholars including 2,238 Graduates. Scholars have also maintained an incredible 78% graduation rate, far outpacing the national average and bringing forth DSF’s mission of getting students to and through college.

About the Denver Scholarship Foundation

Denver Scholarship Foundation (DSF) is a 501(c)(3) public charity whose mission is to inspire and empower Denver Public Schools’ (DPS) students to achieve their college goals. A direct service provider, DSF provides college and financial aid advice to Denver students and families and offers a renewable, need-based scholarship to support Scholars throughout their college careers. DSF also partners with colleges across Colorado to implement retention strategies that help Denver students complete their college education. DSF aims to create systemic change to prepare Denver’s youth to succeed in today’s evolving workforce.
