Denver Scholarship Foundation Announces Margaret Bachrach as Chief Development Officer (CDO)

Denver, Colo. – Denver Scholarship Foundation (DSF) announces the appointment of Margaret Bachrach as chief development officer (CDO) effective January 6, 2020.

Bachrach comes to DSF having most recently served as the vice president of development and communications at Boys & Girls Clubs of Larimer County. She has more than 20 years of experience leading nonprofit strategic fundraising, communications, and marketing platforms, including time with Judi's House/JAG Institute as development director.

"With an extensive background in the nonprofit sector, working to increase the quality of life for families across the Front Range, Margaret brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to DSF," shares Lorii Rabinowitz, chief executive officer of DSF. "Her commitment to strengthening our community is shown in her work, and we are thrilled to bring her into DSF's mission of making college possible for all Denver students."

The CDO serves as part of the executive leadership team of DSF and is responsible for the vision, oversight and management of all fundraising, marketing, communications, and resource development strategies.

About the Denver Scholarship Foundation

Denver Scholarship Foundation (DSF) is a 501(c)(3) public charity whose mission is to inspire and empower Denver Public Schools' (DPS) students to achieve their college goals. A direct service provider, DSF provides college and financial aid advice to Denver students and families and offers a renewable, need-based scholarship to support Scholars throughout their college careers. DSF also partners with colleges across Colorado to implement retention strategies that help Denver students complete their college education. DSF aims to create systemic change to prepare Denver's youth to succeed in today's evolving workforce.
