UNIVERSITY OF DENVER (DU)

Student Support Programs

The Denver Scholarship Foundation wants every college student to successfully complete a college degree or certificate. Below are some helpful resources and programs that are available at DU.

LEARNING EFFECTIVENESS PROGRAM (LEP)

A nationally recognized fee-for-service program that provides individualized academic support for University of Denver students with Learning Disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), students on the Autism Spectrum, or a history of learning differences.

PIONEER LEADERSHIP PROGRAM (PLP)

PLP is a unique academic minor and Living and Learning Community at the University of Denver that emphasizes leadership ignited by community, curiosity, courage, and action. Each year PLP selects 88 incoming students who are ready to embrace the ever-increasing challenges of our world. PLP is a transformational learning experience that combines course work, a residential community, civic engagement, and professional networks to equip 21st century citizen leaders. Through the study and practice of leadership, you will acquire the knowledge, skills and experience necessary to become an effective, collaborative leader in whatever field you choose.

1GENU

A four-year developmental and community-building program that focuses on assisting first-generation students and their families in navigating the institution while providing mentorship and academic resources to ensure their success at DU and post-graduation.

COLORADO WOMEN'S COLLEGE SCHOLARS (CWC)

Provides a multidisciplinary academic and co-curricular program for undergraduate women identified students. Program model is cohort learning experience, learning along 12-15 other women. Requires 24-credit hour Leadership minor.

E-STEM

This grant-funded program creates pathways to academic success for students from historically underrepresented groups in the fields of science, math and engineering.

VOLUNTEERS IN PARTNERSHIP (VIP)

DU's Volunteer database to help navigate ways to educate, engage, and equip yourself to help improve lives of the people in our communities.

LIVING AND LEARNING COMMUNITIES (LLC'S)

way to bring some meaningful experiences in your first-year. Three focuses for the LLCs; Academics, Residential, and Community Engagement. Each LLC is based on a theme. Every quarter, students will take seminar classes relating to that theme, credit can be applied to relevant minors. Students will also live on the same floor of the hall that hosts their LLC. They can take part in programs that enhance course work. There are also opportunities to put these concepts into real-world community settings.

HONORS PROGRAM AT DU

A program for students who want a curriculum passed what is already being offered to students at the University of Denver. The aim of the program is to challenge students to cultivate strong habits of critical thinking, creativity, and scholarship. Students will get smaller class sizes, a small community as well as scholarship opportunity.

COLLEGE OF ARTS, HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES PROGRAM (CAHSS) FIRST GENERATION PROGRAM

The CAHSS First-Generation College Student Program seeks to address educational inequity by offering comprehensive mentoring for CAHSS students who are the first in their immediate family to attend college.

EXCELLING LEADERS INSTITUTE

Excelling Leaders Institute (ELI) consists of a multi-day pre-orientation experience that focuses on areas of academic preparation, leadership development, social identity development, campus networking, and many other key components to ensure overall student success. This includes the ability to move into the residence halls early.

FIRST@DU

FIRST@DU is dedicated to helping first-generation, minoritized, and other underrepresented students succeed. We provide an array of opportunities for all first-generation students to network and build support through community activities, mentoring, success sessions, resource referrals, leadership development, and more. From one-time workshops to years-long support initiatives, FIRST@DU strives to equip students with the tools they need to make the most of their DU experience.

ACCESIBLE DU: STUDENT DISABILITY SERVICES

The Disability Services Program (DSP) is committed to providing equitable opportunities to all students in full compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as amended, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and other applicable laws.

Students with disabilities deserve to participate in all of the University of Denver's courses, programs, and activities. We, at the DSP, help to facilitate this participation by approving and providing accommodations at no extra cost for any student who has a documented disability.
